

ACTIVITY IN SOCIETY IS RESUMING WITH PROMISE OF MUCH TO ENTERTAIN

THE El Paso Women's club and the daughters of the American Revolution begin their regular meetings this week. This will prove a welcome change after the dullness of the past few weeks.

The daughters of the American Revolution will hold meetings this season at the home of Mrs. Horace W. Broadbent on Park boulevard. The October meeting will be held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock and an interesting program will be provided. It will be the first meeting with the new officers in charge.

The first of the season's meetings of the Women's club will occur Wednesday afternoon in the auditorium of the First Christian church, which has been adopted as the meeting place of the club for this year. It will be officers' day when the incoming president, Mrs. S. H. Sutherland, will make her inaugural address and outline the policy of the club for her administration. There will be musical selections and the usual informal reception for the president and her officers afterward.

An event of much interest to a large number of people will be the farewell reception to be tendered Rev. and Mrs. C. Wesley Webb by the congregation of Trinity Methodist church Monday night in the parlors of the church. Mr. Webb has been the pastor of Trinity church for the past four years and his transfer to another charge is the cause of general regret. At the reception, addresses of farewell and appreciation will be made by representatives of the ministerial alliance of the city, the city officials and the church representatives.

Another event of Monday afternoon that has interest for many people is the meeting of the board of directors of the University Scholarship club, which will be held Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock in C. A. Kinkadee's office in the First National bank building. Plans for the scholarship work for this year will be discussed.

Miss Becky Parkins and L. E. Winner will be married at a simple home wedding Thursday evening. The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. E. Winner, on Montana street, by rabbi Martin Zielonka. A wedding supper will follow the ceremony.

The first formal dance of the Progress club will be held Wednesday night in the club rooms in the City National bank building. These dances are always eagerly anticipated.

Mrs. Thomas White will entertain the Social Twelve Card club on Tuesday afternoon at her home in the Alexandria apartments.

On the same afternoon, Mrs. A. K. Howland will entertain with a bridge party in honor of Mrs. W. G. Rogers, of North Worth, and Miss Florence Paul of Houston.

Mrs. Harley Kiefer will be the hostess for the Wednesday Auction Bridge club meeting Wednesday, and Miss Hatlie Mac Loretz will entertain the Beta Beta club the same afternoon.

Mrs. J. V. Haines will be the hostess of the Fortnightly club on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Tom Lee will entertain the Thursday evening club.

Mrs. R. A. Whitlock will entertain the Board of the First Baptist church Sunday afternoon on Friday afternoon and there will be the usual meeting of the Friday Bridge club.

Miss Alaina Broadbent will entertain her school friends with a party Saturday afternoon at her home on Bliss street.

There will be the usual Wednesday night and Saturday night dances at the Country club and the West Vista Country club.

The country club is showing much interest in the forthcoming Pageant of Patriotism and much of the coming week will be spent in rehearsals for the various scenes, as the pageant will be produced soon, on October 15 and 16, in the El Paso auditorium.

Miss and Mrs. J. E. Haines will have a party Saturday afternoon at her home on Bliss street. Only the most intimate friends of the hostess will be invited.

T. E. Edwards entertained Friday night at Hotel Paso del Norte with an informal dinner party in honor of Miss Elizabeth Stevens, Emily Jones, Valeria Garrard and Irene Laughlin, Lieut. Robert O. Annis and Lieut. Theodore Barnes, Jr.

The officers of the women's mission society of Trinity Methodist church gave a delightful luncheon Thursday at the tea room as a farewell to Mrs. C. Wesley Webb. A basket of pink and white carnations formed the centerpiece. The place cards were decorated with hand painted carnations. A half dozen silver salad forks were presented Mrs. Webb as a parting gift from the officers. Each officer proposed an original toast to Mrs. Webb during the luncheon. After the luncheon, the quarterly business session of the officers was held and the reports were prepared for the annual conference, which will be held in Santa this coming week.

Mrs. H. H. Stark was the hostess at a very attractive luncheon given Saturday afternoon in the Harvey house, in honor of Mrs. Charles N. Bassett, a recent bride from American Beauty resort. Each guest's plate was favored and a bouquet of American Beauty roses, tied with pink ribbon streamers, was placed on the table. Pink and white tea roses filled a central basket on the circular table and about it were four baskets filled with the same fragrant blossoms. The place cards were decorated with the initial of the hostess and this was repeated on the little menu cards. Mrs. Stark's guests were Mesdames Charles N. Bassett, W. W. Turner, D. S. Stewart, Charles Davis, Van C. Wilson, R. Brown, W. M. McFar, Dickson, Mabel, Hugh White, J. A. Happer and Josephine Nations Morill.

School Notes.

The low and high eighth grades of the Alta Vista school entertained the seventh grade girls after school with a musical program. The first number was the song of "Robin Hood and His Menchmen," by the low and high eighth grades. Then a high and low eighth grade solo. The school graphophone played several selections and the avul choir sang a solo. The program was given by the low and high eighth grades.

Speeches and declamations formed the program numbers of the Forum Debate society of the high school at its regular weekly meeting Friday night in the school building. R. Underwood talked on the progress of the Forum. Charles Arnold gave an oration, "The Battle of Bunker Hill." R. Mills talked on football experience. A. G. Alexander played several piano selections. Bruce Bevan gave a humorous speech, "Fat Men." Ashley Gillett was a visitor and gave an amusing reading. Three new members were elected to the society; these are Clarence Richards, Henry Baker and Lawrence Young. Russell Blumaine was proposed for membership. There were a number of visitors.

Lamuel Smith, who was recently elected vice president of the School Union Debating society of the high school, was
